MINUTES OF THE TENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN COLLEGES

HOTEL ASTOR, NEW YORK CITY

JANUARY 10-12, 1924

THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 7:00 P. M.

The first session of the meeting was a dinner at the Hotel Astor, at which one hundred and ninety-four persons were present. The President of the Association, President H. M. Gage, of Coe College, presided. The topic of the evening, "The Place of Religion in Higher Education in America," was discussed by President Gage, President C. A. Richmond of Union University, and President M. L. Burton of the University of Michigan.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 9:30 A.M.

The second session was opened with prayer by President S. T. Wilson of Maryville College, Tennessee.

The Report of the Executive Committee was presented by the Secretary as follows:

Report of the Executive Committee

Three meetings of the Executive Committee have been held, one in Chicago immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Association in January, one in New York on the 19th of March, and one in New York, January 11, 1924. Some business has also been transacted by mail.

Subscriptions to Christian Education, the organ of the Council of Church Boards of Education, one copy for each institutional member of the Association, at a subscription price of 40 cents each, were ordered for 1923, at a total cost of $111.20.

The resignation of Dean Douglas Anderson, of Tulane University, from the Commission on the Organization of the College Curriculum was accepted, and Chancellor James H. Kirkland, of Vanderbilt University, was appointed to the vacant place.

An exchange of chairmanships between President H. N. MacCracken, of Vassar College, Chairman of the Commission on Sabbatic Leave, and Dean Otis E. Randall, of Brown University, Chairman of the Commission on Academic Freedom, was approved.

As an interpretation of the action of this Association in 1923 (page 12 of the Bulletin for February) by which new memberships, in the case of Universities and other institutions having several departments, are to be limited to the College of Liberal Arts, it was voted to consider this action as applying to members of the Association of American Universities, the National Association of State Universities, the Association of Land-Grant Colleges, and the Association of Urban Universities. It was further voted to recommend to the Association that the same distinction be applied hereafter to all other member-institutions having several departments.

The Nominating Committee for 1924, as appointed by President Gage, consists of Presidents Ferry (Chairman), Blaisdell, and Cowling, Chancellor Kirkland, and Dean Nollen.

In order to establish a regular procedure for dropping institutions from membership for non-payment of dues, it was voted that after non-payment of dues for two years institutions shall be dropped in July of the third year, and before being reinstated shall be required to pay delinquent dues for two years. When institutions have formally withdrawn from membership with dues paid up, no payment of dues for the intervening period is to be required upon reinstatement.

The budget for 1923, as adopted at the meeting of the Committee in March, showed an estimate of $7,375 as receipts for the year, of $7,743.55 as expenditure for the year, and $1,875.72 as the balance at the end of the year.

The canvass of the membership of the Association in regard to the place of meeting in 1924 resulted in a vote of 126 colleges for New York, 41 for Chicago. It was voted to hold the meeting in New York, on the 10th, 11th, and 12th of January.

The plan proposed by Doctor Kelly for a mass meeting on Thursday afternoon, January 10, of all the educational agencies of the churches under the auspices of the Council of Church Boards of Education, was approved.

Plans for the program of Friday, January 11, and Saturday, January 12 were thoroughly discussed and tentatively approved at the March meeting and afterward revised and completed by correspondence.

The Secretary-Treasurer was authorized and directed to purchase permanent files and books of record for the Association, and also to keep on file complete bound copies of the official publications of the Association.

President Cowling, of Carleton College, was named as the representative of the Association upon the National Research Council for 1923.

President Aydelotte, of Swarthmore College, President Garfield, of Williams College, and Provost Penniman, of the University of Pennsylvania, were appointed as delegates of the Association to the meeting of the Academy of Political Science for 1923.

A bill of $53.00 presented by a firm of attorneys in Chicago for successfully defending the suit brought last January by George W. Burgoyne, reporter, against the Secretary-Treasurer for 1922, was accepted as an obligation of the Association, and was ordered paid.

Fourteen applications for membership were presented by the Executive Secretary and it was Voted, that the Committee recommend the admission of the following institutions:

Colleges—Detached

Antioch College	Yellow Springs, Ohio
Loyola University	Chicago, Illinois
Milton College	Milton, Wisconsin
College of Puget Sound.....	Tacoma, Washington
Saint Stephen's College.....	Annadale-on-Hudson, New York
Tarkio College	Tarkio, Missouri

The Report of the Commission on Faculty and Student Scholarship was presented by President Frank Aydelotte, of Swarthmore College. In the discussion which followed, President R. M. Hughes of Miami University, President G. L. Omwake of Ursinus College, President W. D. Agnew of Woman's College of Alabama, Dean O. E. Randall of Brown University, and President J. D. Finlayson of Fairmount College participated

Dr. R. L. Kelly introduced Dr. Clyde Furst, of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, who presented the Report of the Commission on Organization of the College Curriculum. A vigorous discussion ensued, in which the speakers were President Raymond Binford, of Guilford College, Dr. H. O. Pritchard, of the Board of Education of the Disciples of Christ, President W. J. Davidson of Illinois Wesleyan University, President C. D. Gray of Bates College, President E. E. Rall of North-Western College, President W. D. Agnew of Woman's College of Alabama, President J. R. Harker of Illinois Woman's College, President G. L. Omwake of Ursinus College, Dean O. E. Randall of Brown University, and Dean J. H. Dunham of Temple University.

President Gage appointed President Morehouse of Drake University and President Storms of Baldwin-Wallace College as the Auditing Committee.

President W. D. Scott of Northwestern University introduced Professor R. W. Husband, Director of Personnel Research of Dartmouth College, who presented the Report of the Commission on Psychological Tests and Methods of Rating. The report was discussed by President Scott and Dr. C. R. Mann, Director of the American Council on Education.

The Report of the Commission on Academic Freedom was presented by President K. D. Macmilan, of Wells College, who suggested that the Commission might well be discontinued, unless it should be desired to retain it as a means of cooperating with other organizations, especially the American Association of University Professors, in the adoption of general principles and rules of procedure in matters of this kind. After remarks by Dean Cole of Oberlin College, describing a recent conference with Professor H. F. Goodrich of the University of Michigan, chairman of the Committee of the American Association of University Professors on Academic Freedom, it was Voted, to express to the American Council on Education the willingness of this Association to confer with the American Association of University Professors and other academic and scientific organizations upon this subject.

President F. C. Ferry of Hamilton College presented the Report of the Commission on College Architecture. Remarks by President J. H. Apple of Hood College followed, to which President Ferry replied briefly.

The Report of the Commission on Sabbatic Leave was read by Dean O. E. Randall of Brown University.

The Chairman introduced Mr. Ralph Voorhees of Rutgers College, who made a statement of the work of the Rutgers Interscholastic Debating Association in promoting interscholastic debate in colleges. It was Voted, to refer the matter to the National Council of Phi Beta Kappa, with the recommendation of this Association.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 2:00 P.M.

The first address of the afternoon session was by Dr. S. P. Duggan, Director of the Institute of International Education, on "Foreign Students in American Colleges." A brief discussion followed, in which Dean W. G. Leutner of Western Reserve University and President H. M. Gage of Coe College participated.

A paper on "A Plan for Studying the American Liberal College" was read by Mr. C. L. Clarke, formerly Dean of Beloit College. After Chancellor S. P. Capen of the University of Buffalo and Dr. C. R. Mann, Director of the American Council on Education, had spoken, it was Voted, to refer Mr. Clarke's paper and a report of the discussion to the Executive Committee.

President C. A. Richmond of Union University offered the following resolution:

Whereas, A bill has been introduced in both houses of the National Congress creating a Department of Education with a Secretary of Education having a seat in the President's cabinet and carrying with it a large appropriation, and,

Whereas, It is the judgment of the Association of American Colleges that the plan will not serve the best interests of education and is moreover a source of possible danger to existing rights and privileges,

Resolved, That this Association record our disapproval of the bill and direct that the President of the Association send to the proper committees in both houses of Congress and also publish in the public prints a copy of this resolution.

Adoption of the resolution was opposed by President W. D. Agnew of Woman's College of Alabama and President J. O. Spencer of Morgan College. On a rising vote, the resolution was tabled, 42 to 31.

"The Function of the Liberal Arts College in a University" was next discussed by Dean F. W. Chandler of the University of Cincinnati and Dean H. E. Hawkes of Columbia University.

Mr. Graham C. Wells, President of the National Association of Life Underwriters addressed the Association on the use of endowment life insurance as a means of financial aid to colleges.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 7:30 P.M.

This session was held in Kent Hall, Columbia University, the use of which was generously tendered to the Association by the authorities of the University.

The first address was made by Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, of the National Transportation Bureau, on "Education and National Transportation."

President Henry S. Pritchett, of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, then delivered a most thoughtful and highly appreciated address upon "The Responsibility of the College for our Educational Integrity."

At nine o'clock the meeting adjourned, to attend a reception to members of the Association and their friends at the parlors of the Faculty Club of Columbia University, 400 West 117th Street.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 12, 9:30 A.M.

The first address of this session, on "The American University Union in Europe," was made by Dr. George E. MacLean, retiring Director of the London Office of the American University Union.

President Walter Hullihen of the University of Delaware was the next speaker, on "The Delaware Plan of Undergraduate Foreign Study."

After this, Mr. Marcus M. Marks, of New York City, formerly President of the Borough of Manhattan, addressed the Association on "Developing Opportunities for Foreign

14 ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN COLLEGES

Travel and Study for American College Students and Teachers." In the discussion which followed Dr. R. L. Kelly, President Hullihen of the University of Delaware, and, by special request, M. J. J. Champenois, of the French Department of Education, were participants.

Business Session

The Report of the Treasurer was received and placed on file (See page 18).

The Report of the Auditing Committee, made by President Morehouse of Drake University, was adopted. (See page 19).

President A. B. Storms of Baldwin-Wallace College suggested that the Executive Secretary be requested to report each year upon the work of his office. It was Voted, to adopt this suggestion.

President F. C. Ferry of Hamilton College presented the report of the Nominating Committee in three sections as follows:

Report of the Committee on Nominations

The Nominating Committee of the Association of American Colleges submits the following nominations:

PRESIDENT:

James H. Kirkland, Chancellor of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.

VICE-PRESIDENT:

Ellen F. Pendleton, President of Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass.

SECRETARY-TREASURER:

Charles N. Cole, Dean of Oberlin College, Oberlin, O.

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY:

Robert L. Kelly, 111 Fifth Avenue, New York City

ADDITIONAL MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

Frank Aydelotte, President of Swarthmore College,
Swarthmore, Pa.

Harry M. Gage, President of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa

REPRESENTATIVE TO AMERICAN COUNCIL ON EDUCATION:

John H. MacCracken, President of Lafayette College,
Easton, Pa.

TRUSTEE OF AMERICAN UNIVERSITY UNION IN EUROPE:

Robert L. Kelly, 111 Fifth Avenue, New York City

It was voted, to instruct the Secretary to cast the unanimous ballot of the Association for the officers and representatives nominated.

The second section of the Report was presented:

The Committee recommends that the Commission on Objectives and Ideals be discontinued. The matters that were appropriately called to the task of that committee are ordinarily taken in hand by the Executive Committee.

In response to a good deal of demand, your Committee recommends the establishment of two new Commissions: first, a Commission on College Athletics, having in mind that such questions as these should be considered:—The relation of athletics in college to success in college, and to success in later life; commercialism in college athletics—a question that has been considered much of late, and as it seems to your Committee is very appropriate. Secondly, as a new Commission, a Commission on the Cost of College Education; again a question very much alive before all the institutions of higher education.

The recommendations in regard to the Commissions were adopted.

The third section of the Report containing the nominations for membership of Commissions was read. (See pp. 3-5).

The Secretary was directed to cast the unanimous ballot of the Association for the nominees for membership of the Commissions.

Mr. W. H. Allen, Director of the Institute for Public Service, New York, discussed the movement to form a national Association of Trustees of Colleges and Universities. It was Voted, to ask the Secretary to refer the matter, with the approval of this Association, to the American Council on Education and other appropriate bodies for study.

President Emily W. McVea of Sweet Briar College rose to a question of personal privilege, thanking Mr. Allen for his approving reference to the American college woman. President R. E. Tulloss of Wittenberg College spoke briefly on the same topic.

Dr. Robert L. Kelly reported his service, as representative of the Association, on the Cooperating Council of the American (Bok) Peace Award.

President Gage announced the receipt of an invitation from the French Department of Education to the Executive Secretary of this Association to deliver a course of lectures in Paris after the spring recess, on the subject "The Administration of Higher Education in the United States," with special reference to the participation of students and alumni. President Gage gave appropriate expression to the Association's appreciation of the honor done to Doctor Kelly and the Association by this invitation.

President J. R. Harker of Illinois Woman's College spoke in commendation of the punctuality and completeness with which the program advertised for the present meeting was carried out.

On motion of Dean J. R. Effinger of the University of Michigan, it was Voted, to express to Columbia University our appreciation of the hospitality extended by the University to this meeting.

Doctor Kelly commented on the hospitality of New York, and especially of the newspapers, to the meeting here, mentioning also the fact that it is necessary to suspend a by-law of the Association in order to meet anywhere but in Chicago. No action, was taken on the matter.

President Gage spoke briefly in retrospect of the ten years of Association history.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

(Signed) C. N. Cole,
Secretary.

CONSTITUTION

THE PURPOSE of the Association shall be the consideration of questions relating to the promotion of higher education in all its forms, in the independent and denominational colleges in the United States which shall become members of this Association, and the discussion and prosecution of such questions and plans as may tend to make more efficient the institutions included in the membership of the Association.

NAME: The name of this Association shall be the "Association of American Colleges."

MEMBERSHIP: All colleges which conform to the definition of a minimum college given in the by-laws may become members of this Association. Colleges which do not conform to this definition may become associate members without vote.

REPRESENTATION: Every institution recognized as a member of this Association shall be entitled to representation in such meeting of the Association through the President or Chief Executive Officer of the institution, or other accredited representative. Any officer being a member of the faculty or Board of Trustees of any institution belonging to this Association, or any officer of a Church Board co-operating with such an institution shall be entitled to all the privileges of a representative excepting the right to vote. Each institution recognized as a member of the Association shall be entitled to one vote on any question before the Association, the vote to be cast by its accredited representative.

OFFICERS: The Association shall elect a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be charged with the duties usually connected with their respective offices and who shall serve one year, or until their successors are duly elected. The Association shall at the same time elect two others, who with the three officers above named shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Association. The election of officers shall be by ballot. The term of office shall be for one year, beginning at the close of the annual meeting, and the President, Vice-President and the two members of the Executive Committee shall not be eligible to succeed themselves. The President or Chief Executive Officer of any institution connected with the Association may be elected to office. The President of the Association shall be ex-officio Chairman of the Executive Committee.

MEETINGS: At least one meeting of the Association shall be held in each calendar year. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee, provided that four weeks' notice of same be given each institution connected with the Association. Representatives of eleven members of the Association shall be necessary to form a quorum for the transaction of business.

BY-LAWS: The Association may enact by-laws for its own government not inconsistent with the provisions of this constitution.

VACANCIES: The Executive Committee is authorized to fill vacancies ad interim in the offices of the Association.

AMENDMENTS: Amendments to the foregoing constitution may be offered at any regular annual meeting, and shall be in writing, signed by the mover and two (2) seconds. They shall then lie on the table until the next annual meeting, and shall require for their adoption the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members then present.

By-Laws

No. 1. In order to be eligible to membership in this Association, institutions shall require fourteen units for admission to the freshman class and shall also require 120 semester hours for graduation; but the latter requirement may be waived by a two-thirds vote of the Association.*

*The Association by a two-thirds vote waived this requirement for Clark College, Worcester, Massachusetts, and admitted it to membership on the basis of its standards.

22 ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN COLLEGES

No. 2. The annual dues shall be twenty-five dollars per member.

No. 3. The Secretary of this Association is authorized to mail all official Bulletins to the Libraries and Presidents of all institutions which are members of this Association and have paid their annual dues as lawful subscribers to the same.

No. 4. Chicago shall be the regular meeting place of the Association.

Interpretation

NOTE.—In accordance with an action of the Executive Committee, the Secretary of the Association sends to all institutions wishing to join the Association the following interpretation of the above by-laws as the conditions of membership:

1. A requirement of at least fourteen secondary units for admission to the freshman class.

2. At least 120 semester hours of college work above all entrance units for graduation from the college. The requirement may be waived by a two-thirds vote of the Association.

3. Prompt payment of annual dues.

4. Institutions doing work of college grade, but not meeting in full the first or the second of the above requirements are admitted to associate membership, giving them all the privileges of the Association save the right to vote.

5. All institutions admitted to membership must be bona fide colleges.

POLICY

In accordance with the action of the Association the working policy of the Association is a policy of inclusiveness and interhelpfulness rather than of exclusiveness.

NOTE.—Members of the Association, including their various officers and faculty members, are entitled to extra subscriptions to the Association of American Colleges Bulletin at half rates, that is, $1.50 per annum.
